DATE : 11.03.2026

1. Write a jQuery program to get a single element from a selection of elements of a HTML page.
2. You are having sample data for the link. Write jQuery code to change the hyperlink and the text of an existing link.
3. Write a jQuery program to attach a click and double-click events to all elements.
4. Write a jQuery program to hide all headings on a page when they are clicked. o Also find the position of the mouse pointer relative to the left and top edges of the document

DATE: 17.03.2026

1. Create a JSON object, array, and file to store a cricket match (or any team sport) scoreboard.
2. Design and implement a web page that displays a live scoreboard. Use AJAX (XMLHttpRequest) to retrieve and interpret JSON data from a URL provided by the faculty.
3. Design and implement a web page that displays live news headlines. Use the Axios HTTP client to retrieve and interpret JSON data from a URL provided by the faculty.
4. Write a Node program that prints all the numbers between 1 and 100, each on a separate line.
   A few caveats:
   o if the number is divisible by 3, print "foo"
   o if the number is divisible by 5, print "bar"
   o if the number is divisible by both 3 and 5, print "foobar"
5. Write a program to create a new file and write some content to it in synchronous mode and read and display file contents on standard output in async mode
6. Build asimple Node.js web application serving both HTTP GET and POST methods
7. Use Node and Express to write a simple web application that consists of at least 5 route implementations
8. Rebuild any previous Node assignment using Express and a template engine